

Your Best Defense

The Cincinnati Insurance Company

Teacher's Professional Liability

Practice your profession with confidence knowing you have a Teacher's Professional Liability policy from The Cincinnati Insurance Company. This professional insurance protection is important because you can be sued even when you diligently provide your teaching services. Anyone can make allegations against you. Make sure you have adequate insurance coverage and limits to protect yourself. Your Cincinnati Professional Liability policy complements the limited coverage provided by your employer or your homeowner policy.

Head-of-the-class protection

Your Cincinnati Professional Liability policy pays covered claims up to $200,000, including sums that you are legally obligated to pay because of malpractice and errors in providing or failing to provide professional teaching services.

You're covered whether you're working for your employer or teaching on your own time. In addition, your Cincinnati policy covers the costs to defend you against a covered claim even if a suit is groundless, false or fraudulent.

To further increase the amount of your professional liability coverage by $1,000,000 or more, you may purchase a Cincinnati Personal Umbrella policy. Umbrella coverage adds value to your insurance program and is important for protection against high-dollar settlements and defense costs.

For convenience, protection and peace of mind, add this coverage to your Cincinnati Homeowner policy and have your insurance needs handled with one insurance agent and one premium.

For details, contact your local Cincinnati independent insurance agent.

This is not a policy. For a complete statement of the coverages and exclusions, please see the policy contract. Coverages are available in most states. Please contact your agent to determine coverage availability in your state.
